Salome's Stars

Your Around Town Newspaper - serving Broward County and South Palm Beach for over 36 years.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) You might feel compelled to get involved on the "right side" of a seemingly unfair fight. But appearances can be deceptive. Get the facts before going forth into the fray.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Bullying others into agreeing with your position could cause resentment. Instead, persuade them to join you by making your case on a logical point-by-point basis.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Resist pushing for a workplace decision you might feel is long overdue. Your impatience could backfire. Meanwhile, focus on that still-unsettled personal situation.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Your aspects favor doing something different. You might decide to redecorate your home, or take a trip somewhere you've never been, or even change your hairstyle.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) You might want to take a break from your busy schedule to restore your energy levels. Use this less-hectic time to also reassess your plans and make needed changes.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) What you like to think of as determination might be seen by others as nothing more than stubbornness. Try to be more flexible if you hope to get things resolved.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Watch that you don't unwittingly reveal work-related information to the wrong person. Best to say nothing until you get official clearance to open up.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) With things settling down at work or at home, you can now take on a new challenge without fear of distraction. Be open to helpful suggestions from colleagues.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Your creativity can help resolve an emotional situation that might otherwise get out of hand. Continue to be your usual caring, sensitive self.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) You could impress a lot of influential people with the way you untangle a few knotty problems. Meanwhile, a colleague is set to share some welcome news.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Aspects favor recharging your social life and meeting new people. It's also a good time to renew friendships that might be stagnating due to neglect on both sides.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Congratulations. Your talent for working out a highly technical problem earns you well-deserved praise. The weekend could bring news about a friend or relative.

"Students, Lend Me Your Ears"

The Broward Center For The Performing Arts Presents "Julius Caesar" as a JM Family Enterprises Smart Stage Matinee

The Broward Center for the Performing Arts presents an energetic and contemporary staging of Julius Caesar in the Amaturo Theater as a JM Family Enterprises Smart Stage Matinee on Monday, October 9 at 10 a.m.

Shakespeare's original language comes alive in a ruthless story which examines personal responsibility against the backdrop of great political consequences. This fast-paced adaptation is recommended for grades 8–12 and provides students with the opportunity to ask how the greater good is weighted against advice of friends, the roar of public opinion, strategic advantages and personal cost as well as one's moral compass.

The production is staged by Florida State University/Asolo Conservatory for Actor Training, a three-year graduate program culminating in a Master of Fine Arts degree. Only twelve students are chosen each year from the thousands who audition nationwide to work in a program that combines rigorous classroom training with guest artist workshops and professional production experience. Graduates of the program have appeared on and off Broadway, in regional theatres, in feature films and on television.

JM Family Enterprises Smart Stage Matinees offer literature-based shows that promote reading skills and S.T.E.A.M. (Science Technology Engineering Arts Math) to make challenging concepts accessible to younger learners.

Tickets are $7.20 with $3 lap seats for infants 12 months and under. Buy tickets online at BrowardCenter.org or Ticketmaster.com; by phone at 954.462.0222 or the Broward Center's AutoNation Box Office. Know who you are buying from when you purchase tickets.

The Broward Center for the Performing Arts is located in the Riverwalk Arts & Entertainment District at 201 SW Fifth Avenue in Fort Lauderdale. A Great New Look At Kelly Brother's Irish Pub

This great Irish pub has a new look and it wears it well. Starting from the outside of the building, all the way up to the beautiful lounge upstairs. This local pub stands out on its own, having been there since 1960. However, what makes it so much more is that it also has an all exclusive upstairs bar & lounge. The lounge offers a private spacious room with lounge type seating (chairs and couches), as well as a full bar with bartenders, private bathrooms, delicious food menu, billiards, poker, darts and music (depending on the night, live or juke box). This is one of the few spots in the area that offers a separate 1300 square foot lounge full of fun and games, the perfect room for private parties of any kind. They can cater to any group, club, company, charity or organization. When it's not closed for a private party, it is open to all patrons, and there are bands and comics featured there from time to time. A great spacious area, absolutely perfect to watch sporting events on their many large TV screens, especially NFL games.

U Can Ride Owners Sharon Tamayo, Donna Hite and Jennifer Gross

A warm Irish welcome awaits you as you step through the doors of Kelly Brother's Irish Pub. You feel like you have arrived in Dublin, Ireland as the quaint downstairs pub feels homey with their friendly staff and authentic Irish décor, including unique and antique nautical pieces hanging from the walls and ceiling. On any given day or night, you will be greeted by either Peter Kelly, the owner, or his brother Paul Kelly, the manager, or both. And of course you will be greeted by one of their welcoming bartenders. As you may know, Chef Iggy, one of the best Italian chefs in town, is at Kelly Brother's. He and Chef Moe can whip you up one of Iggy's Italian Specialties (Lasagna better than you have ever tasted). They also are masters of all the Irish specialties, such as a hearty Sheppard's Pie, Fish and Chips, or Corn Beef Sliders. There are wings, burgers and salads as well, if you prefer bar favorites. In house catering is also provided .

With specials on drinks, food and events every night, Kelly Brother's is a cool fun place for friends new and old, to come and hang out at a nice neighborhood pub. People go to Kelly's and feel relaxed. It has a mixed crowd of customers from all ages and walks of life. They have people come in with flip flops to suits and ties and everything in between. You always feel welcome from the minute you walk in the door until the time you leave. Located at SW corner of Oakland Park Blvd. & Federal Hwy., 954-630-2856, www.kellybrothersirishpub.com.

9TH ANNUAL HALLOWEEN HORSE FAIR & SHOW ON OCTOBER 21ST

Welcome to the magic of Therapeutic Horseback Riding where non-profit organization U Can Ride use horses and equine-assisted activities to achieve goals that enhance developing and strengthening emotional skills such as increasing resilience, healthy behaviors, social skills, goal setting, confidence building, conflict resolution, team building, and working through relationships and issues. U Can Ride is focused on and passionate about teaching therapeutic riding and horsemanship skills to children and adults with special needs, debilitating illnesses & Veterans. What an amazing concept this is!

People typically learn best by doing, therefore life lessons and life goals take deeper root when individuals both understand them in their heads and experience them in their bodies. U Can Ride is dedicated to making a difference one ride at a time. Horse and human become partners in a therapeutic relationship, which offers the opportunity to explore abilities rather than disabilities. Working with horses is engaging, real time and hands on, so the experience is immediately felt.

The various groups that donate time, money and host fundraisers for U Can Ride are essential to the success of their operations. For example in August, Allstate Foundation Group Helping Hands Project donated their time to U Can Ride, helping them with some special projects at their facility. U Can Ride's volunteers are also an essential component. PATH (Professional Association of Therapeutic Horsemanship is the governing authority for all Hippo therapy and Therapeutic Riding Instructors).

U Can Ride's three owners, Sharon Tamayo (PATH Certified Therapeutic Riding Instructor), Jennifer Gross (PATH Certified Therapeutic Riding Instructor), and Donna Hite (Riding Instructor) are co-hosting with the City of Pompano Beach the 9th Annual Halloween Horse Fair & Show. Don't miss this fun filled event being held on Saturday October 21st from 10am-3pm at Sand & Spurs Equestrian Park-1600 NE 5th Ave., Pompano Beach.

There will be a Halloween horse costume contest at 11am (you don't want to miss that!), horse show competition classes at 12:30 new this year), a public costume parade (get your Halloween costume ready), pony rides, carnival games, bounce house, face painting, pumpkin patch, food sales & much more. Entry fee is only $1.00 (children under 10 are free). See ad on page 19 for more details or www.ucanride.org.

GETTING FLOWERS IS ONE OF THE SIMPLE JOYS IN LIFE

I remember when I was very young and my two older brothers were pining for a girl and my dad used to say "Buy her some flowers. She will love it and she will agree to go out with you". They would laugh at him and say "no way". Finally one day, my brother was not making any headway with a girl he really liked and said "What the heck, I'll give it a try". Well I'm sure you know how this story ended. He got the girl. As the old adage says, Father knows best.

Buying fresh flowers for yourself or even better, someone you care about feels wonderful. I've heard people say that spending money on something that's going to die within a week is a waste. Really? When you consider the lift that they give you when you glance at them every day, flowers are an inexpensive joy. And no offense to the food stores, but there is nothing like getting flowers from a real florist. Their arrangements are beautifully put together and so much better than any bundles you pick up at the grocery store and try to arrange yourself. Not to mention that they don't last half as long as flowers from a florist. Yes, you may pay an extra $15 or $20 more than at the grocery store, but their extra beauty and longevity is what you are paying for. I love getting flowers and we get our flowers at Flowers Galore on 4900 N. Dixie Highway in Oakland Park. If you look at their website, it tells it all. They have so many different arrangements, all beautiful, all huge, and all lasting for 1 to 2 weeks, depending what kind of flowers you get. There are deals and specials daily, not to mention free delivery for local orders. See ad on page 26 or visit their website www.flowersgaloreftlauderdale.com.

ODDS AND ENDS

What's better than complimenting a delicious dinner with an equally tasty glass of wine? Well, in honor of that notion, Fishtales Restaurant & Nightclub on 33rd Street in Fort Lauderdale is offering a free bottle of wine with a purchase of two entrees. In addition, at Fishtales there is always free entertainment, so for the purchase of two entrees at a very reasonable price, you are getting a scrumptious meal, wine and entertainment. Check out their amazing entree selection at www.fishtaleson33rd.com. There are a few examples shown in their ad on our back page. YUM!! 3355 NE 33rd St., Fort Lauderdale. 954-689-2344.

The NFL stands for National Football League - If they keep protesting the National Anthem, it will stand for No Fans Left

IT'S MY OPINION with RICK SCHWEITZER

Let's take a look at the NFL for a minute. The fact is that this business raked in $14 billion in revenue in 2016 and is heavily subsidized by local, state, and federal money based on dubious claims about stimulating the economy. One report on Watchdog.org said that over the past two decades, the NFL has raked in about $7 billion of taxpayer money to spend on stadium renovation and building. Another study from the Brookings Institution showed that federal taxpayers have subsidized the construction of 36 stadiums at a cost of over $3.2 billion since 2000. Research from George Mason University has shown that not only do communities gain almost no economic benefits from subsidized sports teams, but some findings "indicate harmful effects of sports on per capita income, wage and salary disbursements, and wages per job."

Let's not forget that the NFL gets a special status from the IRS. The protected status of an anti-trust exemption. The Internal Revenue Service considers them a 501(c)6 entity, which means the NFL is taxed as if it were a non-profit organization. I don't know how you feel, but I don't think these owners buy these teams to throw their money away. You and I both know they make money or they would not exist. But why should the taxpayers foot the bill and give them this special status as a non-profit? I think it's time to have the NFL's anti-trust exemption revoked.

Now we have teams kneeling when the National Anthem is played, which disrespects our flag, our country and to the many veterans who have fought and died so we can live in a free country. They have every right to protest peacefully on their time and their dime off the field whenever they want. But to kneel on National TV and show disrespect to our flag and our Veterans who have put their lives on the line for these overpaid poor excuses of Americans! I say let them go to another country and see how long they would last disrespecting their flag.

Steven Segal said, "I respect the American flag. I, myself, have risked my life countless times for the American flag and I don't understand or agree with this kind of behavior. I think it's an outrage." An Indianapolis Colts fan burned his season tickets in a video he posted to Facebook on Monday. Rodney Heard said he served in the Marine Corps and his grandfather was a WWII veteran. He said he thought about giving away the tickets or selling them, but that would just be filling the seats, so he "made his own sacrifice" by burning the tickets instead. And some people filmed videos of themselves burning their once-prized Steelers swag to the soundtrack of frustrated feelings. "If you disrespect our country, I cannot support you," wrote self-described lifelong Pittsburgh Steelers fan Brian Purdy. He lit a Terrible Towel on fire on Sunday and posted it to Facebook, before deleting the post later. Erich Nikischer, a New Era Field employee, declared he left his job Sunday after 30 years of working for the Buffalo Bills. "I cannot work in a place where multi-millionaires cry that they are oppressed," he wrote on Facebook, before deleting his post on Monday. Ticket holders across all social media outlets can be seen everywhere burning their tickets and/or their merchandise.

DirecTV is allowing customers who purchased 'Sunday Ticket', an NFL package, refunds for their subscriptions due to the national anthem protests. CEO Allan Jones said in a statement, "Our companies will not condone unpatriotic behavior" in the NFL. Jones, who has been a big supporter of President Trump, ordered his media buyer ad agency Tombras Group in Knoxville to pull all ads for Check Into Cash, Buy Here Pay here USA, or U.S. Money Stores from all NFL games "for the entire season." A Remington Research poll found 64 percent of Americans agreed with Trump that players should stand for the anthem. As long as I can remember, during sporting events the National Anthem was played and everyone stood out of respect for those who fought and died so we could live free.

The NFL must pass a rule requiring players to stand for the anthem. Owners in the NFL need to realize that the public's tolerance for these overpaid players protesting during our National Anthem is much, much lower than they expected. Since NFL billionaire owners have gone out of their way to accommodate millionaire players in standing down for the national anthem, perhaps taxpaying Americans should stand down from going to the games and watching them on pay preview. It's time for these billionaires free ride to stop, no more non-profit status. If this continues, maybe it's time for a new league, the AFL (American Football League). One that respects our Flag, our Veterans and our Country. Oh, lets also watch out for the left who want to take guns away from law abiding citizens. Remember, no matter how many laws you pass, a crook or a psycho will get a gun. They just want to disarm the general public so they can't fight back against a corrupt government. Remember the second amendment. That's my opinion and I sticking to it

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

You can really see how much the left cares about human life by the comments made after the shooting in Las Vegas exampled by a top CBS News attorney named Hayley Geftman-Gold who said these victims didn't deserve sympathy because country music fans are often Republican; CNN News reporter Jeff Zeleny shockingly stating "something else I think to keep in mind, a lot of these country music supporters were likely Trump supporters"; ABC Television late night host Jimmy Kimmel shamelessly dismissing President Trump's call for prayer for the victims; Esquire Magazine leftist columnist Charles Pierce stunningly cheering these victims as a being "a blood sacrifice to the Constitution"; noted evolutionary biologist and atheist Richard Dawkins insanely praising the shooter of this massacre by stating "Durn tootin', great shootin"; and, a leftist teacher going by the name of Ann #The Resistance tweeting out: "Lots of white Trump supporters in Las Vegas at route 21 watching Jason Aldean. Pray only Trumptards died!". Who knew that "God Bless America" was a 'warmongering' song? Professor Stephen Mosher of Ithaca College in New York did. These were people with families, children, brothers, sisters, Americans, not Republicans or Democrats! What's the matter with you sicko's? You need to be in the countries where they kill people for expressing your thoughts or believing in God.

Democracy is two wolves and a lamb voting on what to have for lunch. Liberty is a well-armed lamb contesting the vote!

"Victoria & Abdul" - a royal delight not to miss

Dame Judi Dench, Ali Fazal, Michael Gambon PG-13 110 Min Focus Features

How do I begin to tell you about how much I love this film? Let me count the ways!

This movie surpassed everything that I would have hoped for in a true story of the relationship between Queen Victoria and one of her Indian subjects. It is funny, engaging, and above all one of the most entertaining movies of 2017!

A 1997 best actress Oscar contender for her role as a younger version of Victoria in "Mrs. Brown," Judi Dench returns here for the final chapter of the queen's story. It's a wry, funny, likable performance with glints of sadness and mortality, the kind of work that almost guarantees another Oscar nomination.

Directed in style, by Stephen Frears, who is worthy of receiving an Oscar nomination, as well, Dench, is brilliant playing Queen Victoria in her later years. This sweet film shows us her relationship with Abdul, a Hindu (played brilliantly by Ali Fazan) brought over to give her a gift of a royal coin for her work for the empire.

"Victoria & Abdul"

She takes a liking to Abdul and he quickly becomes her servant and close friend. As if their relationship in itself weren't enough, the difference in their skin colors drives the royal court's inner circle insane. She plans to knight him and this doesn't go well with the rest of the royal household.

Our story also takes us into the pomp, high formality and backstabbing during the last 15 years of her life. Victoria was the longest reigning monarch in history, which has left her deeply bored, sharp-tempered, dangerously obese and prone to fall asleep halfway through official functions.

The members of royal household who try to destroy the friendship in fear of national chaos are parody bigots with batty, tut-tutting outbursts. "She'll be wearing a Burqa next," grumbles the prime minister (a bone-dry Michael Gambon). The queen's aging heir-apparent Bertie, the future Edward VII, is played in a "just kidding" tone by Eddie Izzard. His frustration that mama doesn't seem to be dying anytime soon makes for lighthearted comedy but lightweight drama.

All I can say is, nothing short of a hurricane should keep you away from this wonderful motion picture experience. "Victoria & Abdul" is a ROYAL DELIGHT! Don't miss it!

"American Made" - fascinating story that needed to be told

Tom Cruise-Jesse Plemons Rated R for language & brief nudity 115 Min Universal

"American Made" centers around the life of Barry Seal, a former TWA pilot who gets hired by the CIA to ship weapons to Central America and gets caught up with drug cartels during his trips.

The best way to describe this film is delightfully wild! What I appreciated the most about it was it never felt like the director was glorifying this irreverent lifestyle. Unlike "Wolf of Wall Street," "American Made" never explicitly shows drug use, multi sexual- scenes, or extreme violence. Instead, you get the full effect by just watching Seal go through ridiculous experience after ridiculous experience, and the smile never leaves Cruise's face.

"American Made"

You can tell Cruise is having a blast making this, and his performance certainly echoes that. I mean, it doesn't hurt that I still had the terrible taste of that fiasco "Mummy" movie before watching "American Made."

Cruise is surrounded by a talented cast who follow along with the energetic tone that director Doug Liman brings. The incredible energy this movie brings is second to none, this year. I absolutely loved the way Liman told this story, never allowing the political side of this story to get in the way of a fast-paced drama.

This isn't "Good Fellas" or "Casino," but "American Made" is a fascinating story that needed to be told and I'm glad Liman and Cruise were the ones who got the chance to tell it. Perfectly paced and infectiously performed, "American Made" is one of the best films of the year. With a refreshingly great performance from Tom Cruise and a pace that rivals the best of Scorsese's based-on-true-story films, "American Made" is another gem collaboration from star Cruise and director Doug Liman.

Marlins and Mattingly look to the future after disappointing season

Marlin's Manager Don Mattingly gives the management thanks for making him part of the team. However, with new management taking over, it looks like there will be major changes. The question is who stays and who goes? As for the future, Mattingly is wondering if he will still have a job. New owner Derek Jeter hasn't spoken to him yet. Although, both Mattingly and Jeter are ex NY Yankee players. Jeter is a perfect fit for taking over Baseball Operations. The ownership change should be completed this week.

The biggest problem is player salaries. Some players may have to go due to financial restraints. Right now they have to focus on minor league development. I'm sure that controlling owners Jeter and Sherman have a plan in mind.

Today there are 3 teams that had a prior year 100-loss season, and now they are making it to the playoffs. What you need is the right combination of players, hitting and especially pitching, which the Marlins have lacked. Hopefully they will keep the nucleus of players, which include Stanton, Yelich, Ozuna, and Boar. Stanton had a great year, just missing the record of Roger Maris, hitting 59 homers.

The Marlins finished the season with a 77-85 record and second place in their division, 20 games behind the Washington Nationals. "Good luck new owners Derek Jeter and Bruce Sherman in building a winning team."

Don Mattingly

Jay Cutler

Matt Moore

IS JAY CUTLER THE ANSWER OR IS IT TIME FOR MATT MOORE TO TAKE OVER THE HELM?

After last week's loss to the Saints, the Dolphins showed how inept they are. They are now 1-2 but should have been 0-3. They got lucky when a missed field goal by the opposition saved them from a loss. In the last two games they scored a total of 10 points. Remember that Cutler was out of Football in the prior year. His footwork and his accuracy passing is way off. Jay has a passer rating of 70.3 As far as the defense goes, they also played very poorly.

I think it's time to replace Cutler with Matt Moore, who is one of the best backup quarterbacks in the league. Last year Moore filled in for Ryan Tannehill when he got injured, and took the Dolphins to the playoffs for the first time since 2008. Now the Dolphins next two games are against two tough teams, the Titans at home and then the Falcons in Atlanta.The Dolphins lost their bye week when they played the Saints in London. They now have to play 13 straight weeks in a row with no break. "Hope to see some improvement in the upcoming games."

Miami Dolphins and Ross Initiative in Sports (RISE) Announce Youth Programs Week 4 Award Winners

The Miami Dolphins and the Ross Initiative in Sports for Equality (RISE) today announced their Week 4 award winners in a program designed to recognize the members of the community who have demonstrated their commitment to being leaders on and off the field.

Each week, the Dolphins identify a high school coach of the week, high school player of the week, youth player of the week and team mom of the week. Award recipients are presented with a plaque on the field during a Dolphins home game at Hard Rock Stadium and receive acknowledgement of their accomplishment in the game program and through the Dolphins' and RISE's social media platforms. They also receive tickets to a Miami Dolphins home game, access to the Dolphins/RISE pregame tailgate and a Dolphins/RISE T-shirt. For each home game, the Dolphins identify a team of the week and they will be on the field during the national anthem. The program concludes at the Dolphins-Patriots game on December 11 where the Dolphins will honor yearly award winners in all categories with the exception of the team of the year.

WEEK 4 WINNERS:

• High School Coach of the Week: Matt DuBuc from Cardinal Gibbons High School. The Chiefs are off to a 3-0 start this season after defeating Stoneman Douglas 49-0. Cardinal Gibbons is currently ranked No.2 in the state in 5A football.

• High School Player of the Week: Divaad Wilson from Miami Northwestern Senior High School. The 6'0", 180 pound senior defensive back had four tackles, two interceptions and two pass breakups in a 14-7 win over Booker T. Washington. Divvad is committed to attend the University of Florida in the fall.

• Youth Player of the Week: Eric Cannon from the Palmetto Bay Broncos Junior PeeWee (115s) of the Greater Miami South Florida Pop Warner football league. Cannon had eight carries for 130 yards and three touchdowns and added three receptions in a victory over the Miami Youth Hurricanes.

• Team Mom of the Week: Melissa Dempsey from the Kendall Hammock Warriors 11U of the Miami Xtreme Youth Football League. Dempsey is a first year head team mom, but has been an assistant head team mom for over eight years. In her first season as head team mom, Dempsey has dealt with adversity that comes with the position, but with all the frustrations, she has never complained and deals with all the problems immediately. On top of her head team mom duties, Dempsey also has taken the leadership of managing the concessions stands. Dempsey is one in a million volunteer, who takes on challenges and always has a smile on her face. Her dedication to the Kendall Hammocks Warriors program is priceless.

ABOUT MIAMI DOLPHINS YOUTH PROGRAMS

The Miami Dolphins Youth Programs' mission is to transform the lives of youth football players by instilling character building and reinforcing safety standards that help to increase football participation and grow a new generation of Dolphins fans.

October is Popcorn Poppin' Month – A Time to Celebrate!

Americans love popcorn. Plain, salty or sweet, we consume 13 billion quarts each year of this wholesome, whole grain treat, and we devote an entire month to honoring it. October is National Popcorn Poppin' Month, a time to celebrate one of America's oldest and most unique snack foods.

Long before techno gizmos and gadgets, people were fascinated with popcorn's ability to transform from seed to snack. In recent years, popcorn was heralded for its convenience and affordability. Consumers today appreciate popcorn's farm-to-table simplicity and healthy halo. Popcorn has always been non-GMO, gluten-free, naturally low in fat and calories, sugar-free, and contains no artificial additives or preservatives.

And, of course, there's the irresistible smell and taste and the fact that we eat popcorn with friends and families, forever connecting popcorn to good times.

Join the celebration all month long. It's easy to create small batches of interesting flavors, like the warm pumpkin pie spices of this recipe from the Popcorn Board. This indulgent snack captures the true taste of autumn.

White Chocolate & Pumpkin Pie Spice Popcorn Bites

Maple Pumpkin Spice Popcorn

WHITE CHOCOLATE & PUMPKIN PIE SPICE POPCORN BITES

Ingredients

* 12 cups unsalted, unbuttered popped popcorn
* 3 cups chopped white chocolate or white chocolate chips
* 1 tbsp light olive oil
* 2 tsp pumpkin pie spice
* 1/2 cup toffee bits
* 1 tsp flaked sea salt, crushed

Directions

1. Line large, rimmed baking sheet with parchment paper or waxed paper. Place popcorn in large mixing bowl.
2. In microwave-safe bowl, combine chocolate, olive oil and pumpkin pie spice; microwave on Medium for 2 to 3 minutes or until melted and smooth, stirring after each minute.
3. Pour melted chocolate mixture over popcorn; add toffee bits and toss to combine. Immediately transfer to prepared baking sheet, spreading to edges of pan; sprinkle sea salt over top.
4. Let cool; refrigerate for 1 to 2 hours or until set. Break into chunks for serving.

Tip: Homemade pumpkin pie spice can be made by combining 3 parts ground cinnamon with 1 part each ground nutmeg and ginger, and a dash of allspice and ground cloves.

MAPLE PUMPKIN SPICE POPCORN

Ingredients

* 2 tablespoons brown sugar
* 2 tablespoons maple syrup
* 1 1/2 teaspoons pumpkin spice mix
* 1 tablespoon butter or margarine
* 1/2 cup chopped pecans, optional
* 5 cups popped popcorn

Directions

1. In a large saucepan or pot, heat brown sugar, maple syrup and pumpkin pie spice mix over medium heat.
2. Cook, stirring, 3 minutes or until sugar is dissolved and mixture is bubbling.
3. Stir in butter until melted and well blended.
4. Add pecans, if desired, and popcorn and stir until well coated.
5. Allow mixture to cool before serving. Serve immediately or store in an airtight container.

One of South Florida's annual must-see Halloween events, the Spirits of Stranahan House Halloween Tours return from October 27 to October 30 at 7 p.m. The evening tour, guided by authentic Victorian Mourners, will divulge the dark secrets of the spirits who linger within the confines of Stranahan House. Additionally, the Grave Keeper will tell tales of countless other haunted sites throughout Florida. You may even come across the spirit of Frank Stranahan himself!

For those looking to experience an unusual history-inspired Halloween excursion, the Spirits of Stranahan House Halloween Tour is ideal for satisfying one's curiosity. Tickets are $25 per person and advanced registration is required. To register, call 954-524-4736 or email info@stranahanhouse.org.

ABOUT HISTORIC STRANAHAN HOUSE MUSEUM

The Stranahan House was built in 1901, when Broward County was no more than a bleak southern frontier supposedly unsuited for human habitation. The existing residents were the Seminoles who traveled down the New River to

Strange BUT TRUE

by Samantha Weaver

* It was Irish author and editor Robert Lynd who made the following sage observation: "History may be read as the story of the magnificent rearguard action fought during several thousand years by dogma against curiosity."

* Historians say that the Halloween tradition of trick-or-treating dates back to the early European tradition of mumming, when costumed dancers would go door to door to perform choreographed routines, as well as songs and plays, in exchange for treats.

* You might be surprised to learn that on a per-capita basis, Finland has more heavy-metal bands than any other country on Earth.

* If you're fortunate enough to be planning a trip to Argentina, you'll almost certainly make a stop in Buenos Aires, the capital. While you're there, keep an eye out for a mobile work by Raul Lemesoff. The artist, known for his eccentricity, converted a 1979 Ford Falcon into a kind of a tank -- it even has a turret that swivels. Instead of soldiers and armaments, however, this tank carries books on shelves both inside and outside the vehicle. Lemesoff drives his "Weapon of Mass Instruction" through the city streets, delivering free books to all comers. His only requirement? Recipients must promise to read what he gives them.

* You've certainly heard of "Tarzan of the Apes." Edgar Rice Burroughs' 1912 work has been adapted over and over again -- for radio, television, film and more. You probably weren't aware, though, that the novel was such an instant and ongoing success that Burroughs wrote 24 sequels.

* In a recent survey of pet owners, 43 percent of respondents said that they'd be eating healthier themselves if they ate the same thing they fed their pets.

THE HISTORY CHANNEL

* On Oct. 6, 1847, "Jane Eyre" is published by Charlotte Bronte under the pseudonym Currer Bell. At age 5, Bronte was sent to a boarding school. The harsh conditions -- bad food, cold rooms and strict discipline -- all were reflected in the boarding school portrayed in the novel.

* On Oct. 7, 1960, the one-hour television drama "Route 66" debuts on CBS. The program followed two young men, Tod and Buz, as they drove across the country in a Corvette convertible looking for adventure.

* On Oct. 8, 1956, New York Yankees pitcher Don Larsen throws the first no-hitter in World Series history. Even better, it was a perfect game -- that is, there were no runs, no hits and no errors, and no batter reached first base.

* On Oct. 16, 1773, the first public statement against the British Parliament's Tea Act, a document known as the "Philadelphia Resolutions," urges all Americans to oppose the British tax. Two months later, a group of colonists disguised as Mohawks boarded three British tea ships and dumped 342 chests of tea into the harbor.

* On Oct. 17, 1906, Wilhelm Voigt, a 57-year-old German shoemaker, impersonates an army officer and leads an entire squad of soldiers to help him steal 4,000 marks from the mayor's office. Voigt humiliated the German army by exploiting their blind obedience to authority. The Kaiser thought the story was funny.

* On Oct. 18, 1968, John Lennon and Yoko Ono are arrested for drug possession in London. Days earlier, an announcement that Ono was pregnant created a scandal because both were married to other people.

Columbus Day in the United States

Columbus Day, which is on the second Monday of October, remembers Christopher Columbus' arrival to the Americas on October 12, 1492. This holiday is controversial because the European settlement in the Americas led to the demise of the history and culture of the indigenous peoples.

OBSERVE COLUMBUS DAY

Some Americans celebrate the anniversary of the discovery of their country with church services and other activities. In some towns and cities, special church services, parades and large events are held. Many celebrations happen in the Italian-American community. The celebrations in New York and San Francisco are particularly noteworthy. In Hawaii Columbus Day is celebrated as Discoverers' Day, but it is not a state holiday.

Many states now celebrate Native Americans' Day/ Indigenous People's Day instead of Columbus Day.

Statue of Christopher Columbus

WHAT'S OPEN OR CLOSED?

Columbus day is a public holiday in many parts of the United states, but is not a day off in some states. Some government offices are closed because Columbus Day is still a federal government holiday. The day is a legal observance in states like Florida.

Many businesses and shops are open in states that don't have Columbus Day as a public holiday. Schools are not required to close but check with your school district or school calendar on Columbus Day school holiday closures. The same goes for post offices - check with your local post office.

ABOUT COLUMBUS DAY

Christopher Columbus is often portrayed as the first European to sail to the Americas. He is sometimes portrayed as the discoverer of the New World. However, this is controversial on many counts. There is evidence that the first Europeans to sail across the Atlantic were Viking explorers from Scandinavia. In addition, the land was already populated by indigenous peoples, who had 'discovered' the Americas thousands of years before.

Columbus Day originated as a celebration of Italian-American heritage and was first held in San Francisco in 1869. The first state-wide celebration was held in Colorado in 1907. In 1937, Columbus Day become a holiday across the United States. Since 1971, it has been celebrated on the second Monday in October. The date on which Columbus arrived in the Americas is also celebrated as the DÃa de la Raza (Day of the Race) in Latin America and some Latino communities in the USA. However, it is a controversial holiday in some countries and has been renamed in others.

Columbus Day celebrations are controversial because the settlement of Europeans in the Americas led to the deaths of a very large proportion of the native people. It has been argued that this was a direct result of Columbus' actions. It is clear that the arrival of the European settlers led to the demise of a large proportion of the history and culture of the indigenous peoples of the Americas. It has also been argued that Columbus should not be honored for discovering North America, as he only went as far as some islands in the Caribbean and never got as far as mainland America.

Last Friday's Party Benefiting The Pantry of Broward

THANKS SO MUCH!

THE PANTRY OF BROWARD, INC.

I don't even know where to begin with my long list of thank you's! I am blessed to call you all my friends. A gathering of angels arrived last Friday night as our community held hands and reached deep into our hearts and pockets to support the Pantry of Broward after they lost 21,000 lbs of food during Hurricane Irma. The Pantry feeds Broward County seniors and grandparents caring for their grandchildren, so as the children not to be put into foster care.

We are so fortunate to know each other and stand together to give the elders and children in our community a "hand-up." We raised nearly $4,000 from donations and raffle ticket sales, plus piled high canned goods at my front door. Together, we made a difference. We shared the gift of giving. We could not have done it without You! "We are all angels, and we only have one wing because we need each other to fly!"

Love,

Lenore

P.S. We had several raffle tickets drawn which were not claimed last Friday night. Please check your numbers below to see if you're the lucky winner of one of these remaining prizes! If you have a winning ticket, please call 954-491-2340 to arrange to claim your prize!

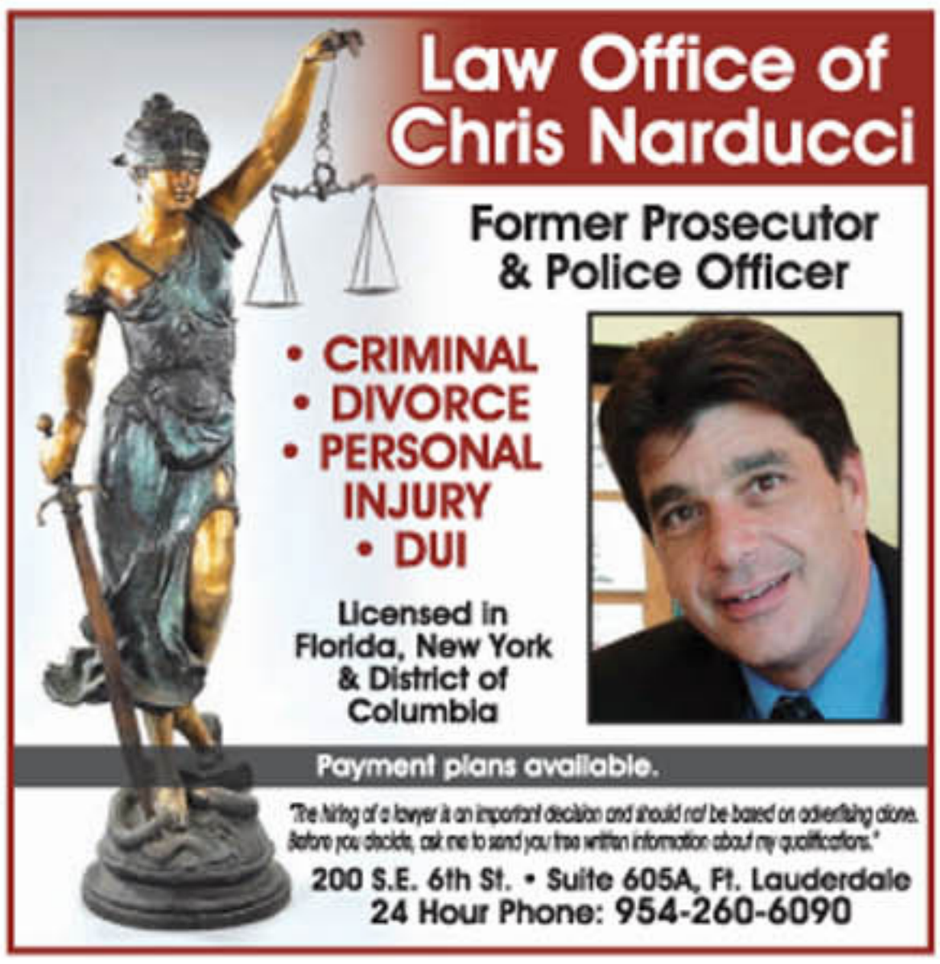
Upcoming Concerts at Hard Rock Seminole Hotel & Casino

Southside Johnny and the Asbury Jukes appearing Friday, October 13 @ 8pm

Garry Tallent, Ernest Carter, Patti Scialfa and Soozie Tyrell have all performed, toured and/or recorded with the Jukes. The band's horn section – the Miami Horns – has also toured and recorded with Springsteen. More than one hundred musicians can claim to have been members of the Asbury Jukes, including Jon Bon Jovi who toured with the band as a special guest during 1990. Bon Jovi has also cited the band as an influence and Jukes' Bobby Bandiera and Jeff Kazee have also toured with Bon Jovi. Other notable band members include Mark Pender and Richie "La Bamba" Rosenberg who have played regularly with the Max Weinberg 7 on both Late Night with Conan O'Brien and The Tonight Show with Conan O'Brien.

Southside Johnny and the Asbury Jukes are a Jersey Shore musical group led by Southside Johnny. They have been recording albums since 1976 and are closely associated with Bruce Springsteen & the E Street Band. They have recorded and/or performed several Springsteen songs, including "The Fever" and "Fade Away". Springsteen has also performed with the band on numerous occasions and in 1991 guested on their Better Days album. During the band's formative years Miami Steve Van Zandt acted as the band's co-leader, guitarist, songwriter, arranger and producer while other E Streeters including Clarence Clemons, Max Weinberg,



Santana performing Saturday, October 28 @ 8pm

Santana is an American Latin rock band formed in San Francisco, California in 1966 by Mexican-American guitarist Carlos Santana. The band first came to widespread public attention when their performance of "Soul Sacrifice" at Woodstock in 1969 provided a contrast to other acts on the bill. This exposure helped propel their first album, also named Santana, into a hit, followed in the next two years by the successful Abraxas and Santana III.

In the years that followed, lineup changes were common. Carlos Santana's increasing involvement with guru Sri Chinmoy took the band into more esoteric music, though never quite losing its initial Latin influence.

In 1998, Santana was inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame, with Carlos Santana, Jose "Chepito" Areas, David Brown, Gregg Rolie, Mike Carabello and Michael Shrieve being honored.

The band has earned nine Grammy Awards and three Latin Grammy Awards, the latter all in 2000. Carlos also won a Grammy Award as a solo artist in 1988. Santana has sold more than 90 million records worldwide, making them one of the world's best-selling groups of all time. In 2013, Santana announced a reunion of the classic line-up for a new record, Santana IV, which was released in April 2016. They are tied for having the most won Grammys in one night.

Fort Lauderdale, FL
www.ambryrestaurant.com

Come and meet Misty Mullins, the newest addition to the family owned Ambry Restaurant. This pretty lady matches her looks with her friendly personality. She is also very cool, the kind of lady you want to hang around with. As such, Misty fits in perfectly with The Ambry's notoriously fun bar. She has that special charm about her, that no matter how little you may know her, she makes you feel at home.

One of the few native Floridians, Misty was born and raised in Miami. Although she did live in Alabama for some time before moving back here six years ago. Born on December 12th, Misty is a Sagittarian who has been bartending since she was 18. Her passion for bartending is driven by all the knowledge and friends she has gained over the years. She doesn't like the rude people though, but who would? She says that the guests at the Ambry are amazing people.

In her spare time, Misty loves to binge watch Netflix and her hobby is working on cars. Now how cool is that! In ten years Misty sees herself married in Sanibel.

Go by The Ambry and get to know this great lady. She is currently working Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday nights.

Of course size matters...

1. Which legendary country-music artist had three post-humous hits?
2. Name the singer/songwriter who released "It's Over."
3. The Raiders' "Indian Reservation" referenced which Indian nation?
4. What was Three Dog Night's "Shambala" about?
5. Name the song that contains this lyric: "I ain't got no money, I ain't like those other guys you hang around, And it's kinda funny, But they always seem to let you down."

ANSWERS

1. Patsy Cline, with "Sweet Dreams," "Leavin' on Your Mind" and "Faded Love." Cline died in a plane crash in 1963. The songs, released later, were all big hits.
2. Roy Orbison, in 1964. The song was a hit on both sides of the Atlantic, reaching No. 1 in the U.K. It has been covered by others, such as Bonnie Tyler.
3. The Cherokees, one of many tribes forced to re locate to Oklahoma along the Trail of Tears. The song was first released in 1959 under a different title.
4. Shambala is a mythical kingdom in the Himalayas.
5. "I Wanna Be Your Lover," by Prince in 1979. In an interview on "American Bandstand," Prince responded to host Dick Clark's questions with only one-word answers -- the most difficult interview Clark had ever done.

Q: I can't believe "Pretty Little Liars" is over! Now what should I do? -- Maggie F., via email

A: Just sit tight a little while longer, and you'll get your "Liars" fix ... in the form of the Freeform spinoff "Pretty Little Liars: The Perfectionists." I just got word that it has been greenlighted for a pilot, which will star "Liars" co-stars Sasha Pieterse and Janel Parrish as Ali and Mona, respectively.

"Pretty Little Liars: The Perfectionists" will be based on the book series "The Perfectionists," written by "Liars" scribe Sara Shepard. Here is a description of the show from Freeform: "Everything about the town of Beacon Heights seems perfect, from its top-tier college to its overachieving residents. But nothing in Beacon Heights is as it appears. The stress of needing to be perfect leads to the town's first murder. Behind every Perfectionist is a secret, a lie and a needed alibi."

Q: One of my favorite authors is Neil Gaiman, and I absolutely love "American Gods." Will he be involved in any more television projects soon? -- Tim M., The Villages, Florida

A: Terry Pratchett and Neil Gaiman's 1990 horror/fantasy/humor novel "Good Omens: The Nice and Accurate Prophecies of Agnes Nutter, Witch" is being developed into a six-part series for Amazon Prime Video. "Good Omens" will launch in 2019 on Prime Video by Amazon Studios in the U.S., as well as in more than 200 countries and territories, including in the U.K., where it will air on BBC Two at a later date.

Amazon previously announced that Michael Sheen and David Tennant would be taking on starring roles in the series, playing angel Aziraphale and demon Crowley, respectively. And now we know that Jack Whitehall will be playing Newton Pulsifer, aka Newt, an unfulfilled clerk-turned-witch hunter; Michael McKean will take on the role of Sergeant Shadwell, the leader of the witch-finder army who sends him on his mission. Miranda Richardson will play Madame Tracy, the psychic medium and part-time courtesan who provides a helping hand to the pair as they try to save the world from Armageddon.

Q: Do you have any more scoops on "Stranger Things 2"? -- Ned R., via email

A: As season two of the cult Netflix hit gets closer to its Oct. 27 premiere of nine new episodes, I can tell you that it has been renewed for a third season, with series creators/writers/directors/executive producers the Duffer Brothers stating that they'd like to conclude the series with its fourth season. And while Netflix has yet to renew the show for a fourth and final season, I have no doubt that it will happen. I also can tell you that series co-stars Joe Keery and Noah Schnapp -- who play Steve and Will, respectively -- have been upped to series regulars, so we'll be seeing a lot more of them.

Gimme That Night Fever

by Mindy Leaf

THEATRE with JESSE J. LEAF
Around Town Theatre Critic

Brooklyn, late July 1977. Disco, the Bee Gees and Saturday Night Fever, the original Nik Cohn movie, all capture the imagination of a nation. As do rampages of serial killer Son of Sam and bursts of street violence during a citywide blackout. Imposing yet figurative skyscrapers fill the set of Margate's venerable Stage Door Theatre -- inviting you into the fevered city. But soon the lighting and the diorama shift to reveal a large screen where alternating newsreels project the strife of the times.

And suddenly, as if "coming alive" right out of the movies, struts Daniel Vasquez as Tony Manero, belting the lyrics to "Stayin' Alive." The song's message of hope and resilience in turbulent times, as welcome, and necessary, today as it was back then.

Saturday Night Fever: The Musical was adapted for the stage by Robert Stigwood and Bill Oaks in 1999 and ran on Broadway through 2000. To celebrate the 40th anniversary of this classic film, Stage Door chose it as the opening show of their 25th season (a local milestone well worth celebrating as well). Omnipotent director Kevin Black works his usual magic with musical staging and production design to bring us all the sounds and scenes of the disco era, supported in no small part by the relentless energy and practically nonstop song-and-hot-stepping hoofing of his large and uniformly talented cast.

Dance contest at a Brooklyn disco. Daniel Velasquez strikes Tony Manero's iconic pose in Stage Door Theatre's production of SATURDAY NIGHT FEVER: THE MUSICAL. Celebrating the film's 40th anniversary and the theater's 25th year in South Florida.

Anyone who follows theater knows recent years have featured growing numbers of screen-to-stage remakes (rather than the more traditional stage-to-film model). Successful contemporary examples being "Waitress," "Finding Neverland," and "School of Rock." Sometimes, it almost seems as if Broadway is unwilling to take a chance on anything new, content to repackage proven audience favorites from the silver screen. Which naturally begs the question: If you liked the film, why also see the show? Why spend considerable dollars on live theater when you can view video on demand, see it on cable or stream for free? To which I answer: reserve a seat at a Stage Door Theatre production and you'll immediately understand why. You'll feel it deep in your heart and vibrating among your bones.

Because there is nothing like the immersive, visceral and communal experience of live theater. In Saturday Night Fever, you don't merely watch a 1970's drama take place in an old Bay Ridge, Brooklyn neighborhood -- you enter that world. You breathe the city beat and are dazzled by 2001 Odyssey Club's disco ball. You feel the suspense, daring and terror of climbing up over the supports of the Verrazano Bridge. And you commiserate with strong women who must fight for their place among the macho "bro" Italian-American subculture.

It's been at least decades since I last saw the movie and I'll admit that, other than a general notion of the theme, I didn't remember many plot lines. So for those of you who, like me, are vague about what happened, I won't ruin it for you here. Suffice it to say, in addition to all the glorious dancing and numerous familiar songs (along with some new ones), the show contains a dramatic storyline complete with subplots that will hold your interest throughout. Also, especially in the first act, there's plenty of laugh-out-loud Italian family humor. To be followed by sobering tearjerkers in Act Two.

For not only are the cast members excellent dancers and singers, they are also accomplished thespians who know how to tug at your heart. To name but a few of these talented triple-threats: Sandi Stock as Annette, Alexandra Milbrath as Stephanie Mangano, Kelly Ziegler as Pauline, Bruno Faria as Bobby C. And even if you're sitting toward the back (it's not that big a theater, so that's still a great seat), you can see all the cast up close and personal when the company dances up to you along the aisles after taking their closing bows. By then, you'll be standing up and clapping and singing along with them. It's a glorious, drawn-out grand finale that has everyone catchin' the "Fever!"

Saturday Night Fever: The Musical is playing through October 15 at Stage Door Theatre, 8036 W. Sample Rd., Margate. FL 33065. Get your dancin' shoes on and boogie on down. For tickets see www.stagedoorfl.org or call 954-344-7765.

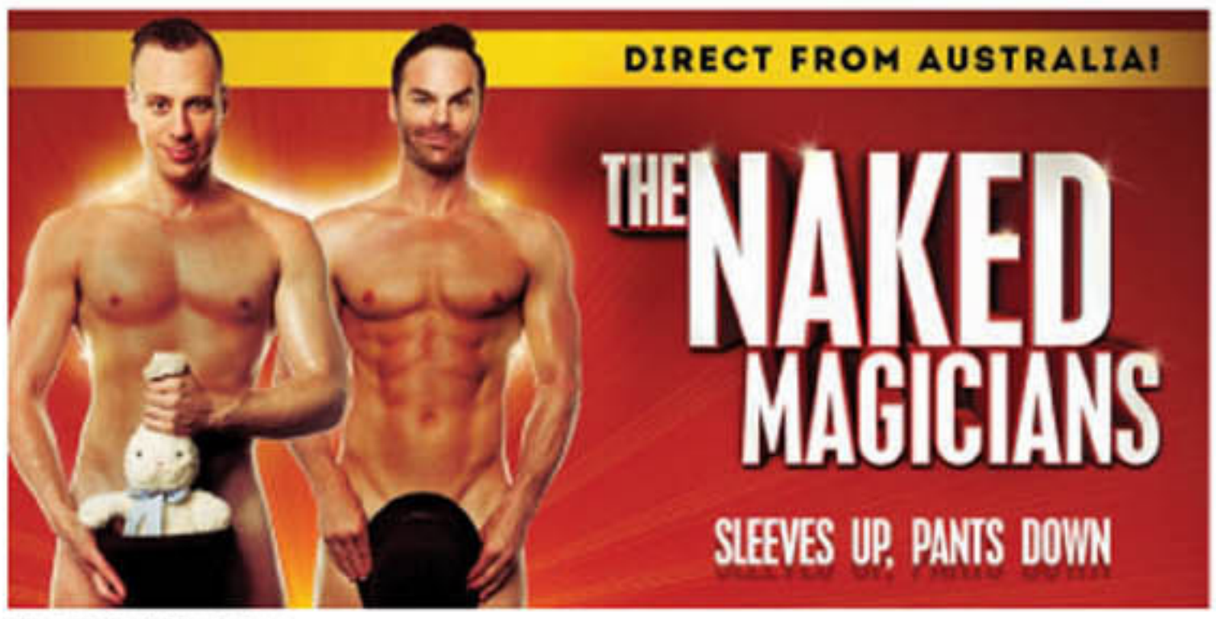
Coral Springs Center for the Arts Launches 2017-2018 Season With Naked Magicians!



The Naked Magicians

Actually, the Coral Springs Center for the Arts has been renamed The Center; and have assembled an exciting, diverse, audience-wowing array of concerts, shows and events for their 2017-2018 Season.

Ok... to prove a point, their first program is The Naked Magicians! No kidding! Circle Saturday, October 14th on your calendar, as you won't want to miss "... the worlds naughtiest and funniest magic show." Direct from Australia, the show features magic, mirth and more than a touch of mayhem as these two hot and hilarious magicians say abracadabra and take magic to a whole new level. Left without sleeves or pockets, their saucy magic is baffling and entertaining, bringing a new meaning to "now you see it". This boisterous R-rated magic show, strips away the top hats and capes, promising full frontal illusions. Good magicians don't need sleeves and great magicians don't need pants. This show proves just that.

The Naked Magician's show has been sold out across the world including London's West End, United States, Canada, Asia, Australia and New Zealand, all garnering rave reviews.

There's even VIP tickets that include a premium seat, photo opportunity and meet-and-greet with The Naked Magicians. Note: 18+ only as this magic show Includes coarse language, sexual references and nudity. Go figure!

Some of the awesome programs coming your way include: Big Bad Voodoo Daddy, Linda Eder, Garrison Keillor, POCO, Red Hot Chili Peppers, The Temptations & The Four Tops; Plus Tributes to ABBA, The Beatles, The Bee Gees, The Carpenters, Chicago, Neil Diamond, Elvis, Carole King, and Pink Floyd.

Located at 2855 Coral Springs Drive, the state-of the-art Center is also offering for most concerts an elevated Level3 experience that includes exclusive access to private bars with specialty drinks and music before and during the main event.

Tickets start at $49.00 and are available by calling the Box Office at (954) 344-5990 or going online to www.TheCenterCS.com.

I Care I Cure Childhood Cancer Foundation To Host Inaugural Golf Tournament

The I Care I Cure Childhood Cancer Foundation (I Care I Cure) will host its inaugural golf tournament on Thursday, October 19th at the historic Fort Lauderdale Country Club. The Tournament will begin at 11:30 a.m. with lunch, followed by a 1:00 p.m. shot gun start and a 19th hole cocktail and dinner reception. Proceeds will help fund research for targeted and less toxic cures and treatments for childhood cancer. I Care I Cure Board Member Steven Greenbaum and supporter Wes Holston, are co-chairing.

The upscale tournament will feature complimentary music, food and beverages on the course, a hole-in-one contest, a well-stocked gift bag for attendees, an exceptional silent auction and a raffle including a 4-day and 3-night stay at the Atlantis Royal Towers in Paradise Islands, Bahamas, donated by Kerzner International Resorts.

Wes Holston

Steven Greenbauman

I Care I Cure was founded by Brad and Beth Besner in memory of their son Ian Besner, who died at the age of 11 of complications from the toxic medications used to fight his leukemia. Although in remission, Ian's immune system was weakened by the treatments which caused the meningitis that tragically took his life. Since 2007, I Care I Cure has funded over $1.7 million in research towards less toxic and targeted treatments for childhood cancer, both locally and throughout the country.

Information about the golf tournament and the purchase of raffle tickets is available online at www.icareicure.org or you can contact Babette Ferre- Kosar at info@icareicure.org.

Funding Arts Broward (FAB!) Plans October Luncheon To Feature Special Guest's Mark Traverson & Matthew Korinko From Slow Burn Theatre Company

Count on Funding Arts Broward (FAB!) to entertain their luncheon guests with awesome programs and their October 17th event is no exception. They will present special guests Mark Traverso, President/Director of Slow Burn Theatre Company and Matthew Korinko, Co-Founder/Executive Director of Slow Burn Theatre Company. Together they will speak on "Fueling the Fire – the story of the Slow Burn Theatre Company."

Matthew Korinko

Wait... wait... there's more... Attendees will be treated to a special preview from Tarzan The Musical!, which will run at the Broward Center from October 19th thru November 5th. Tarzan is based on the Walt Disney Animation Studio's film of the same name. The songs are written by Phil Collins with a book by David Henry Hwang. The musical mostly follows the plot of the Disney film: Tarzan is raised by gorillas, meets Jane, a young English naturalist, and falls in love. Jane's entourage plans to kill the gorillas, and Tarzan's loyalties are tested. OMG!

Slow Burn Logo

"FAB! is excited to continue our luncheon series that showcases local arts organizations," said Carolyn Lee, president of FAB!. "Our valued members and community supporters are welcome to join us for this afternoon of networking, education and entertainment."

The luncheon takes place at the Broward Center's Mary N. Porter Riverview Ballroom at 11:30 a.m. Tickets cost $55 and are on sale at fundingartsbroward.org/events/luncheon-programs . For more information, email fundingartsbroward@gmail.com or call (954) 353-7673. The Broward Center is at 201 S.W. 5th Avenue in Fort Lauderdale.

Tarzan... The Musical

FAB!

Funding Arts Broward, (FAB!)'s mission is to enrich the local arts community by funding Broward County based visual and performing arts organizations that present high quality programs to the public. Since its inception in 2003, the organization has granted nearly $3 million to local visual and performing arts programming.

PACE Center for Girls Broward's 25th Anniversary Silver Celebration Gala

PACE Center for Girls Broward's 25th Anniversary Silver Celebration Gala, presented by the Leo Goodwin Foundation, commemorates the organization's 25-year history of providing at-risk girls and young women an opportunity for a better future through education, counseling, training and advocacy. The Gala takes place on Saturday, October 7th at 6:00 p.m. at the Diplomat Resort and Spa, 3555 South Ocean Drive in Hollywood.

Fort Lauderdale Mayor John P. "Jack" Seiler, longtime PACE supporter and board member, will serve as master of ceremonies at the event. Co-chairs are community leaders Suzette Bravo and Allison Cagnetta. The Silver Celebration Gala will feature a cocktail reception, silent auction, dinner and dancing to live entertainment.

Allison Cagnetta

Suzette Bravo

The gala event will honor individuals and corporations that have been instrumental in the founding, growth and success of PACE Center for Girls Broward, including: Bank of America, Leo Goodwin Foundation, Robert C. Radice, in Memoriam, and Mark Snead.

Tickets are $225 per person, $300 VIP (includes premium seating and commemorative gift). Visit https://www.pacecenter.org/broward-silver-anniversary or contact Kim Vassar, PACE Broward Director of Development, at (954) 561-6939 ext. 3827.

PACE Center

PACE Center for Girls Broward, established in 1992, provides at-promise girls with prevention and intervention non-residential services through gender-responsive programming, designed to specifically meet the needs of girls and address their unique strengths and challenges. PACE Broward has served more than 6,500 girls through its academic day program and Reach Counseling Center, providing counseling services, case management and diversion/civil citation services.

Over 20,000 Expected For American Cancer Society's Making Strides Against Breast Cancer 3K Walk

Over 20,000 local breast cancer survivors, caregivers, volunteers, and corporate and community members are coming together "... for a world without breast cancer." Uniting to make the greatest impact to save lives and ensure no one faces breast cancer alone. The American Cancer Society will once again sponsor the Making Strides Against Breast Cancer 3K Walk. This noncompetitive, inspirational event raises awareness and funds for a world without breast cancer.

Boca Raton Mayor Susan Haynie

Among those participating will be Boca Raton Mayor Susan Haynie; City Council Members & Commissioners and local Boca Raton residents.

The event takes place on Saturday, October 21st at the Mizner Park Amphitheater, 590 Plaza Real in Boca Raton. Registration begins at 6:30 a.m. with the walk beginning at 8:30 a.m. – rain or shine! Contact John Sternal at (954) 592-1201 or e-mail jsternal@meritmile.com.

Making Strides

Last year, 23,000 Making Strides Against Breast Cancer participants raised $520,000 in South Palm Beach County for the American Cancer Society to invest in groundbreaking research; provide free, comprehensive information and support to those touched by breast cancer; and help people take steps to reduce their breast cancer risk or find it early when it's most treatable.

According to the American Cancer Society Cancer Facts & Figures 2017, an estimated 252,710 women in the United States will be diagnosed with breast cancer and 40,610 will die from the disease this year. About 2,470 men are also expected to be diagnosed with breast cancer this year with 460 deaths.

Since 1993, more than 13 million supporters have raised more than $810 million to help end breast cancer. Today, walks are held more than 250 communities nationwide.

Broward College Happenings...

Broward College To Host Fireside Chat On Sea Level Rise and Climate Change

As part of an ongoing commitment to environmental awareness, the Center for Civic Engagement and Leadership at Broward College will host a Sea Level Rise and Climate Change Fireside Chat on Thursday, October 12th beginning at 11:00 a.m. at the Judson A. Samuels South Campus, 7200 Pines Boulevard, in Pembroke Pines. The event is a collaboration between Broward College, Broward County, and Miami-Dade County.

The Fireside Chat will consist of panel presentations and intimate discussions with leading South Florida climate change and sea level rise experts. Panelists will include Miami-Dade County Chief Resilience Office James Murley, Broward County Chief Climate Resilience Officer Dr. Jennifer Jurado, and Broward College Political Science Professor Kari Hebert. The moderated discussion will be followed by an interactive Q & A session with students, faculty, environmental advocates, and business leaders.

Broward College President J. David Armstrong, Jr.

Dr. Jennifer Jurado

James Murley

"As South Floridians, we must be vigilant of changing climate projections. Our livelihood – home, work, and recreation – could potentially be threatened by the smallest increase in sea levels," said Broward College President J. David Armstrong, Jr. "We must begin the conversation now and be prepared for how these changes will affect us."

The lecture will begin with a welcome by Former Broward County Commissioner John P. Hart, executive director Center for Civic Engagement and Leadership at Broward College. The event is free and open to the public.

Call David Rigby at (954) 201-7970 or drigby@broward.edu. To learn about the panel ,visit www.broward.edu.

Hackers Rejoice... Broward College 2017 Hackathon Contest Challenges Young Programmers To Develop IT Skills

For the third year, the Broward College Computer Science Department will host its BC Hackathon competition from Friday, October 13th thru Saturday, October 14th. The 24-hour contest will challenge young technology enthusiasts from universities and colleges across Broward County to develop new software programs. The event will begin with an opening ceremony at 12:00 p.m. in Building 13 at the A. Hugh Adams Central Campus, 3501 Davie Road in Davie.

The contest encourages students to pursue careers in technology but also fosters knowledge sharing among participants from different majors.

"Hackathons are a great way for students to learn about current technology in an environment where they will be surrounded by others who share the same passion for programming," said Michelle Levine, Broward College professor of computer science and co-organizer of the event. "We can't wait to see what is created this year."

During the event, teams of 4 to 5 students are required to pitch an idea and build a prototype to present the next day. No work or coding can be done on projects before the start of the BC Hackathon and students retain ownership rights to their projects after the event. Projects will then be judged by a panel including Chris Caputo, President of Agile Element; Tim Hasse, Founder & CEO of TRIM Agency; Denise Mendez, Software Test Automation Engineer at Magic Leap; and Brent Lewis, Software Engineer at Microsoft. Prizes will be awarded at the conclusion of the event.

Michelle Levine

Participants must be currently enrolled at Broward College or other college or university in Broward County. Select high school students also will be invited to participate.

For more information visit the website http://bchackathon.com or contact Michelle Levine at mlevine1@broward.edu or (954) 201-6318. To view the schedule, please visit: https://csit.broward.edu/hackathon/schedule/ .

Hoffman's Chocolates Launches Really Sweet Fundraising Opportunity... Chocolate Bars!

Hoffman's Fundraising Chocolate Bars

Leave it to Hoffman's Chocolates to come up with yet another really sweet concept... This time, they have a unique way for non-profits to raise funds. It's their Fundraising Chocolate Bars... and it's just in time for the beginning of the 2017/2018 school year and Social Season.

Hoffman's Chocolates is now selling boxes of its Fundraising Chocolate Bars at all of its nine South Florida locations. The boxes contain 36 chocolate bars (1.5 oz. per bar) in three different flavors including Milk Chocolate (12 bars), Dark Chocolate (12 bars) and Milk Chocolate with Almonds (12 bars).

The boxes are the perfect fundraising tool for schools, sports teams, clubs and organizations. The boxes can be purchased for $36 (retailing at $1 per chocolate bar), and have a suggested re-sale price of $2 per bar. The box unfolds to reveal a handle for easy transport. Organizations interested in purchasing a bulk order of the boxes can do so by placing an order online at www.hoffmans.com to be picked up at any desired Hoffman's Chocolates location.

The chocolate bars are also great for gift-giving, office parties and events. Each wrapper includes a BOGO offer to buy any size cup or cone of Hoffman's Chocolates Ice Cream and get one free.

The Fundraising Chocolate Bars are available at Hoffman's Chocolates Las Olas store at 920 East Las Olas – (954) 368-4320 as well as their other stores located in Greenacres, Boca Raton, Palm Beach Gardens, Delray Beach, Plantation, Weston, Hollywood and the Fort Lauderdale/Hollywood International Airport.

To learn more about Hoffman's Chocolates Fundraising Chocolate Bars visit www.hoffmans.com.

Cystic Fibrosis Foundation's Crunchy Monkey Peanut Butter Bang Sundae Was Winner Of Hoffman's Chocolates Ice Cream Sundae Competition

In the "... wish we were there" department, Cystic Fibrosis Foundation's (CFF) Crunchy Monkey Peanut Butter Bang Sundae was the winning combination at Hoffman's Chocolates recent Ice Cream Sundae Competition – Making Sweet Creations for Sweet Donations. A panel of five judges chose CF's yummy creation and CF took home a $1,500 donation.

The event was held at Hoffman's Chocolates/ BBX Capital's corporate office, where seven nonprofit organizations each partnered with a Hoffman's store manager to create a special ice cream sundae for the competition. The masterminds behind CF's delicious sundae recipe were Darlene Eddy, Hoffman's Chocolates Plantation Store Manager, and Christina Landshut, Executive Director of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation South Florida Office.

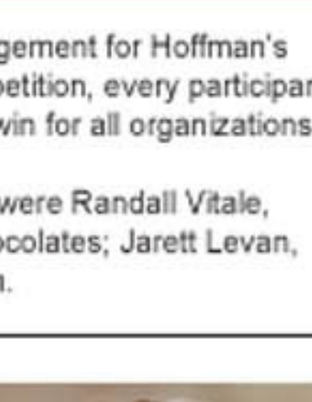
The other non-profits were Vita Nova, ARC Palm Beach, Crockett Foundation, 2-1-1 Broward, HANDY and the Melanoma Foundation. Each received a donation of $250.00.

Randall Vitale, Jarett Levan, Dara Levan, Lois Marino, Darlene Eddy and Christina Landshut

"This is our second time holding our summer ice cream sundae competition, and it's a really fun way for our store managers to make meaningful connections with leaders of various nonprofit organizations in our South Florida community," said Lois Marino, Director of Community Engagement for Hoffman's Chocolates. "The way we set up the competition, every participant walks away with a donation, so it's a win-win for all organizations and a feel-good event for us."

On hand to cheer the contestants along were Randall Vitale, Regional Vice President of Hoffman's Chocolates; Jarett Levan, President of BBX Capital and; Dara Levan.

How To Make A Crunchy Monkey Peanut Butter Bang Sundae



A Crunchy Monkey Peanut Butter Bang Sundae

Served in a freshly-made waffle bowl, half-dipped in chocolate, the over-the-top Crunchy Monkey Peanut Butter Bang sundae ($9.95) features three 4 oz. scoops of Hoffman's signature ice cream. The three ice cream flavors include Banana Cream Pie, a creamy banana ice cream with marshmallow ribbons and baked pie crust; Chocolate Fudge Brownie, a velvety chocolate ice cream filled with moist fudge brownie pieces and chocolate fudge; and Elephant Ears, vanilla ice cream swirled with peanut butter and large chocolate chips. The three scoops are topped with Hoffman's rich peanut butter cups and fresh bananas that are covered in sugar and flambeed to a perfect crisp. The mouthwatering sundae is coated with a smooth caramel sauce and finished off with whipped cream and a cherry on top.

Lorraine Thomas To Receive Lifetime Achievement Award At 2017 Profiles in Leadership Gala

More than 450 guests are expected to attend the "Under the Sea 35th Coral Anniversary Black-Tie Ball" on Saturday, October 14th at The Weston Fort Lauderdale Beach, 321 North Fort Lauderdale Beach Blvd. Guests will enjoy a sumptuous dinner, an over-the-top live and silent auction, a special tribute to the honorees and live entertainment by Gregory Griffith Productions. The event runs from 6:30 p.m. to 11:00 p.m..

"The Profiles in Leadership Gala highlights individuals who have gone above and beyond for our community through their commitment to leadership and philanthropy," said Peter Moore, Board Chair and President of Chen Moore and Associates. "It also gives us the opportunity to recognize our remarkable volunteers, donors and partners for all of their hard work and dedication."

This year, community activist Lorraine Thomas will receive their Lifetime Achievement Award. Lorraine is well known throughout the community, showing what a true philanthropist is by her dedication to the less fortunate and helping hundreds of children and families through financial support, generosity of time and experience. This year's honorees are: Allison and Andy Cagnetta, Gerald Greenspoon, Dev Motwani, Philip Purcell and Juliet Murphy Roulhac.

Dr. Marjory Lyons Resumes Her Very Popular Friday Writing Classes

The Pink Energizer Bunny - who just keeps on going and going - pales in comparison to the energy of Dr. Marjory Lyons! A long time friend of this column, the 88 years young uber-active entrepreneur, author, Key Note speaker and self-publishing thought-leader, has resumed her popular Friday Writing Workshops.

Dr. Marjory Lyons

"Marjory's Friday Writers," as her students named her workshops, takes place every Friday from 10:00 a.m. to Noon at the Skolnick Community Center, 800 SE 36th Avenue in Pompano Beach. Writers are working on their books in various genres - fiction and non-fiction - ranging from personal stories to novels to memoirs.

"Everyone has a story to tell. In fact, one recent survey discovered that 83% of Americans have a book they want to write," Marj Lyons enthused. "Add to this the explosive growth and ease of self-publishing, and it becomes easier for just about anyone to write that book!"

Marj's principal business is Telling Your Story LLC, a specialty publishing company, established in 2001. "I write, edit and publish books of memoirs. To date, I have published eleven books plus another book on which I was principal writer for a retiring United Airlines pilot and businessman in California."

Dr. Lyons retired from the Fischler School of Graduate Education faculty of Nova Southeastern University in 2014 after 22 years. Her memoir-writing workshops have a broad reach, having been held in York, Maine, Sedona, Arizona, and Cavendish, Vermont and in Florida. She has served on the faculty of the famous Chautauqua Institute in western New York in 2014 teaching "Telling Your Story in Words and Pictures," her specialty workshop helping folks incorporate their photographs and artifacts into the text of their memoirs. She received the first Hall of Fame Award by the Writers Network of South Florida for "recognition of her contribution to the writing community...and giving back."

To attend Marj's writing classes, call (954) 249-1333, e-mail Marjory.lyons@telling-your-story.com or visit www.telling-your-story.com.

"Some people ask the secret of our long marriage. We take time to go to a restaurant two times a week. A little candlelight, dinner, soft music and dancing. She goes Tuesdays, I go Fridays."
